

SVP Ozanam Centre Annual Sponsored Pilgrimage 9th - 14th May 2009

The walk is taking a route which Celtic pilgrims walked in the 5th century AD, along the Llyn Peninsula to Bardsey Island.

The outline of the walk:

- The walkers should arrive at the Ozanam Centre on Monday, 9th May, and the walk will start with a Mass in St Buerno's Church on Tuesday.
- During Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday walkers will be exploring the Llyn Peninsula taking in as many of the historic sites as time and energy allows and returning to the Ozanam Centre for each night.
- On Friday the walkers should reach Aberdaron and stay there for the night in a local hotel.

The pilgrimage is planned to finish with a trip to the Bardsey Island on Saturday and a Mass in the Bardsey Island Chapel.

The walk will cover a distance of approximately 40 miles in total. Each day the walkers will cover between 8 - 12 miles.

The sponsorship level - £400.
